
4. Submissions must be sent in digital format (Word and pdf) to Fondazione Benetton Studi Ricerche at: Ludica@fbsr.it, no later than 15th March 2021.

5. Submissions should be prefaced by a short abstract of no more than 3,000 characters. A European template curriculum vitae et studiorum briefly outlining the author's academic career should also be included, as should a signed declaration that the work is unpublished and unencumbered by any constraints.

6. The winners of the two awards, each for an amount of 3,000 (three thousand) Euros, inclusive of any applicable deductions, will be announced at a public meeting organized by the Fondazione Benetton Studi Ricerche in Treviso in November 2021. The recipients will be invited to participate in the meeting as guests of the Foundation.

7. The Selection Board – comprising the members of the Scientific Committee of the journal Ludica. Annali di storia e civiltà del gioco and appointed by the Foundation's Board of Directors – will, at its sole discretion, adjudicate the winners, who will be notified no later than 15th June 2021. The Selection Board may also assign Honourable Mentions to other submissions deemed of note.

8. The winning studies will be published in the original language, with an indication of the Prize awarded, in the Fondazione Benetton Studi Ricerche's journal Ludica. Annali di storia e civiltà del gioco. The journal may also publish other submissions which, although not awarded a money prize, are nonetheless considered of particular merit.
